HRSA Preview FY2000. The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) has released nearly all of their FY2000 grant announcements. The administration aims to improve access to health care, especially for underserved and vulnerable populations, and all of their grant programs support this mission. To receive a copy, call 1-877-477-2123 or email hrsagac@hrsa.gov or visit www.hrsa.gov. Application kits for specific programs can be obtained by calling 1-887-477-2132 with the CFDA number. A chart of selected programs of particular interest to the District is included on the second page of this fax. For further assistance, please contact OGMD at (202) 727-6537.

Demonstration Project High-Risk Youth and Adults. The Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration invites proposals for approaches that assure "high-risk" youth and adults are provided with quality workforce investment services that address their unique needs through the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) system. Proposals must address one of three priorities: capacity-building; direct services to youth; and direct services to adults. Eligible applicants include State and local public agencies, and public and private non-profit organizations. Approximately 3 awards will be made in each priority area. The capacity-building grants are anticipated not to exceed $500,000, and all others not to exceed $1 million. The award is for 24 months of activity and recipients must be able to match the funds dollar-for-dollar. The deadline is February 4, 2000. Questions should be faxed to Denise Roach at (202) 219-8739. The complete solicitation is available at www.doleta.gov.

Last Call: HIV/AIDS Prevention and Intervention FY2000 Supplemental Grant from DC Department of Health's Administration for HIV & AIDS (AHA). The deadline for submission is December 8, 1999. Contact OGMD for details.

Private Funding Opportunities

The Morris and Gwendolyn Cafritz Foundation supports programs of direct assistance, with emphasis on community service, arts and humanities, education and health. DC is the geographic focus. Grants average between $10,000 and $25,000. Proposals are reviewed three times per year. The next deadline is March 1, 2000. For application guidelines and more information, call the foundation at (202) 223-3100.

The Coca-Cola Foundation aims to provide youth with educational opportunities and support systems. One of the program areas is classroom teaching and learning. Innovative K-12 public school and community projects are eligible to apply. For more information about the foundation, please call (404) 676-2568. Details are also available at www.thecoca-colacompany.com/foundation/index.html.

The Breast Cancer Fund awards community model grants to encourage and support the start-up of truly creative, innovative and replicable programs across the country, which are developing new methods for addressing the support, education, healthcare access and advocacy needs of women affected by breast cancer. Grants range from $15,000 to $35,000. Contact Dan Fons at (415) 543-2979 and visit www.breastcancerfund.org.
